

Story: The Princess goes home

The princess and the bird are in the boat and the magic fish swims in the water. They arrive at the bridge. The princess is happy because she does not like the island, the strong man and the tower. She trusts the magic fish and the bird.

The troll is not on the bridge because he is stuck on the island with the strong man. The goats are in the field. They eat the green grass. The Princess goes in the field to meet the three goats. But the big goat is aggressive. She does not like his big horns. She wants to go home to the castle.

The king and queen, the princess's parents, look for the princess. Eventually their soldier arrives at the bridge and sees the princess. She is happy. The princess will return to the castle. She thanks the magic fish for his help and says goodbye. The princess gives the fish a kiss and suddenly he turns into a handsome prince! Of course the prince and the princess fall in love!

They return to the castle with the bird. The king and queen are very happy. They thank the prince for saving the princess. They give him a treasure chest and the prince and the princess get married. They never see the goats, the strong man and the troll again !

Oral

The fish water the in swims magic

The princess does not like the island because

The and look for the princess.

The princess does not like the big goat because

The turns prince fish a into

At the end of the story the prince and princess are happy because

I think that the magic fish is happier as a fish / prince because

The prince is rich because....

What do you think happens to the troll and the strong man ?